

Early-bird deadline is May 4, 2022. Don't delay, register today! The last 3 years sold out!

Don't miss the ABA Dispute Resolution Section's 15th Arbitration Training Institute & Arbitration Practice Development Program scheduled for June 1 - 3, 2022 at the Loyola University Chicago School of Law.

This in-person, two-day comprehensive training in advanced arbitration skills will feature plenary sessions by nationally recognized arbitrators and advocates addressing every step of the arbitration process. Facilitated breakout sessions follow each plenary so participants can take a deeper-dive into the issues that matter to them. Special highlights of this year's Institute are:

- New
- A half-day practice development program the day before the Institute begins taught by experts in the arbitration field including from well-known ADR providers who will provide practical guidance for developing, managing and improving a successful career as an arbitrator.
 - Concurrent sessions taught by experts on handling employment, international, construction, health care, and smaller cases in arbitration.
 - A special plenary session on "Learning the Ropes from Case Managers" featuring professionals in the know from AAA, JAMS and CPR.
 - An interactive CLE ethics session.
 - A dynamic plenary session on "Cases Not Worth Missing."

To see the program brochure, click <https://bit.ly/3JzikL1>.

Register today <http://ambar.org/arb2022>! The early-bird rate deadline is May 4, 2022.

To hear a podcast that previews one of the half-day program sessions -- "Learning the Ropes from Case Managers: What You Need to Know" tune in here <http://ow.ly/wS9c50IxcH6>.